

This is my . . . BRADFORD

About Bradford

Packed with surprises Bradford is a contemporary, vibrant city and the world's first UNESCO City of Film. From an exhilarating international arts scene to a world class centre for film, to an architectural treasure trove, Bradford is never less than enthralling. Here are some great ideas to get you planning ahead . . .

Do and See

National Media Museum

Explore 7 floors of interactive galleries. Journey through popular photography, visit the IMAX, discover the story of television, play with light lenses and explore the world of animation. Look out for the regular film festivals and events.

Bradford, BD1 1NQ

0870 7010200

www.nationalmediamuseum.org.uk

Impressions Gallery

Impressions Gallery is the UK's leading independent venue for photography and exhibits the best of today's photographers. There is also an exciting programme of talks and events.

Centenary Square, BD1 1S.

08450 515882

www.impressions-gallery.com

Alhambra Theatre

Enjoy an evening at the theatre. The Alhambra is a beautiful Edwardian theatre and one of the North's most popular theatres. Choose from the best of drama, musicals, opera and ballet.

Morley Street, BD7 1AJ

01274 432000

www.bradford-theatres.co.uk

Eat & Drink

Mumtaz

The world famous Mumtaz is one of Bradford's most popular restaurants, famous for its excellent Kashmiri cooking. The restaurant also has a popular delicatessen.

Great Horton Road, BD7 3HS

01274 571861

www.mumtaz.co.uk

Karachi

The Karachi has been serving good food for decades and is one of Bradford's oldest Asian restaurants. A favourite with Rick Stein after it featured on his Food Heroes programme it is well worth a visit.

15 – 17 Neal Street, Bradford, BD5 0BX

01274 732015

Love Apple

The Love Apple is one of Bradford's most popular venues for its relaxed atmosphere, excellent live music, club nights and restaurant.

Great Horton Road, Bradford, BD7 1AL

01274 744075

www.loveapplecafe.co.uk

Waterstones Café, Wool Exchange

The Wool Exchange is a beautiful Victorian building and now home to a Waterstones and café. The café is an ideal place to admire the impressive architecture.

10 Hustlergate, Bradford, BD1 1RE
01274 727885

Heritage and Culture

Saltaire, UNESCO World Heritage Site

Just a few miles from Bradford City Centre, is Saltaire, a perfectly preserved Victorian village. Here you will find Salts Mill, now home to one of the largest collections of David Hockney's works, as well as shops and restaurants.

www.saltsmill.org.uk

Industrial Museum

Explore Bradford's industrial history at the Industrial Museum which has permanent displays of textile machinery, working horses and perfectly restored mill workers cottages.

Moorside Road, Bradford, BD2 3HP
01274 432416

www.bradfordmuseums.org

Bradford Cathedral

Bradford's oldest place of worship and home to hidden treasures including Flaxman sculptures and some of William Morris' stained glass windows. Look out for the regular events and concerts.

Stott Hill, Bradford, BD1 4EH
01274 777720

www.bradfordcathedral.org

Families

IMAX Cinema

The Bradford IMAX offers a daily programme of exciting large format films in 2D and 3D. Visit the National Media Museum at the same time - a perfect family day out.

National Media Museum, BD1 1NQ, 0870 7010200

www.nationalmediamusuem.org.uk

Keighley & Worth Valley Railway

Step back in time and enjoy a family day out on the Keighley & Worth Valley Railway, a perfectly restored steam railway. Look out for the family events run throughout the year.

Railway Station, Haworth, BD22 8NJ
01535 645214

www.kwvr.co.uk

Get Around

Bradford is well served by two train stations, Bradford Interchange and Bradford Forster Square which connect with intercity and local train stations.

The city also has an excellent bus network which links Bradford city to the district's towns and villages including other West Yorkshire cities.

www.wymetro.com

Outdoors

Ilkley & Wharfedale

The former spa town of Ilkley is located in the Yorkshire Dales and has recently acquired Walkers are Welcome status. Famous for Ilkley Moor, its beautiful countryside and excellent walking, Ilkley is the perfect place if you enjoy the outdoors.

www.visitilkley.com

Bronte Country

Haworth, home of the Brontes and the Bronte Parsonage Museum is an ideal base for a walking holiday. Take a walk across Haworth Moor which was the inspiration for Wuthering Heights or join the Bronte Way one of the long distance paths that passes through the village.

www.visitbrontecountry.com

Tourist Information Centre

Bradford Visitor Centre

City Hall
Bradford
BD1 1HY

Tel: 01274 433678

Email: bradford.vic@bradford.gov.uk